

Vedanta Aluminium's Subhalaxmi Cooperative felicitates students for academic excellence

Jharsuguda: Vedanta Aluminium, India's largest producer of aluminium, announced the felicitation of 48 meritorious students by Subhalaxmi Cooperative, one of Odisha's largest women-led cooperatives and self-help groups that is extensively supported by the company. The recognition was part of an annual event to honour academic brilliance and encourage students to aspire for greater scholastic excellence in the region. Academic awards were presented to students who secured scores ranging from 70 percent to an impressive 96.5 percent under the Mahila Kalyan Panthi Fund. C. Chandru, CEO-Vedanta Jharsuguda, said, "Education plays a vital role in shaping individuals and communities, and we are proud to support initiatives that make learning more meaningful. Through Subhalaxmi Cooperative, we see empowered women entrepreneurs creating opportunities not just for themselves, but also for the next generation. Pankajini Oram, President - Subhalaxmi Cooperative added, we are proud of each child who was honoured today.
