

Vedanta Aluminium celebrates Children's Day

POST NEWS NETWORK

Bhubaneswar, Nov 15: Vedanta Aluminium, India's largest producer of aluminium, celebrated Children's Day 2025 with vibrant and inclusive activities across its operations in Odisha, Chhattisgarh, and Andhra Pradesh.

The celebrations reached more than 9,000 children through a rich blend of initiatives focused on educational support, cultural engagement, sports, and skill-building, reaffirming Vedanta's commitment to nurturing young minds.

As part of its broader CSR vision, Vedanta Aluminium continues to invest in the holistic development of children through sustained interventions in education, health, sports, and future-ready skills. Rajiv Kumar, CEO of Vedanta

Aluminium, said, "At Vedanta Aluminium, we believe that empowering children with knowledge, health, and confidence is the cornerstone of building a strong and self-reliant nation. Our Children's Day celebrations reflect the same philosophy that drives our social interventions throughout the year, enabling access to quality education, fostering creativity, and creating opportunities for every child to thrive. We remain committed to nurturing the leaders and innovators of tomorrow through sustained community engagement."
