3. Composition and Chairmanship

The members of the Committee will be appointed by the Board and may be removed by the Board in its discretion. These members will serve until their cessation on the Board of Company or removed by the Board or their successors have been duly appointed. The Committee shall comprise of at least three directors and at least two-thirds of the directors shall be independent directors. All directors of the Committee shall be non-executive directors. However, the chairperson of the Board (if any) may be appointed as a member of the Committee but shall not chair the Committee. The Chairperson of the Committee shall be an independent director and shall be appointed by the Board. In case the Chairperson is not present at any Committee meeting, the members present at the meeting shall, amongst themselves, elect a Chairperson for that particular meeting.

4. Frequency of meeting and Quorum

The Committee shall meet at least once a year and the quorum for the meeting shall be either two members or one third of the members of the Committee, whichever is greater, including at least one independent director in attendance.

5. Appointment and removal of Director, KMP and SMP:

The Committee shall evaluate the diversity of the board, balance of knowledge, skill, professional & functional expertise, industry orientation, board diversity, age etc. on the Board and, in the light of this evaluation, prepare and recommend to the Board, a description of the role and capabilities required for a particular appointment.

For every appointment of independent director, the Committee shall:

- a. Evaluate the balance of skills, knowledge and experience on the Board and on the basis of such evaluation, prepare a description of the role and capabilities required of an independent director;
- b. Ensure that the person recommended to the Board for appointment as an independent director shall have the capabilities identified in such description.

For the purpose of identifying suitable candidates, the Committee may:

- 1.) use the services of an external agency, if required;
- 2.) consider candidates from a wide range of backgrounds, having due regard to diversity; and
- 3.) consider the time commitments of the candidates.

In case of Directors, KMPs and SMPs, in addition to the above specifications, the NRC shall ensure that the potential candidates possess the requisite qualifications and attributes as per the Applicable Laws.

Refer Annexure A for the criteria for determining the Independence of Directors in case of appointment of Independent Directors.

With respect to removal of any Director, KMP and SMP, the NRC shall in consultation with either the Chairman of the Company, review the performance and/or other factors meriting a removal and subject to the provisions of the Applicable Laws and the Articles of Association of the Company, recommend to the Board its course of action.

In pursuance to the applicable laws, each Director shall attend at least one meeting of the Board of Directors held during a period of twelve months. If the director does not meet the minimum attendance criteria and is absent from all the meetings with or without seeking leave of absence from the Board, then the director may incur disqualification.

6. Board Diversity:

The Committee, in its nomination process and while making recommendations to the Board shall endeavor to have an optimum combination of directors from a diverse mixture of skills, professional & industry backgrounds, age, sexual orientation, physical disabilities, family status, religious beliefs, political beliefs, nationality geographical experience & expertise, gender, tenure, ethnicity and diversity of thought. The Committee shall operate on the premise that a diverse and inclusive Board will be able to leverage different skills and perspectives which is essential for achieving long-term growth and development. The Committee shall set out the criteria for determining qualifications, positive attributes and independence while evaluating a person for appointment /re-appointment as Director with no discrimination on the grounds of ethnicity, nationality, gender or race or any other such factor. While reviewing the composition of the Board, the Committee will consider the benefits of all aspects of diversity including, but not limited to, those described above.

7. Board Familiarization and Learning:

Regulation 25(7) of the SEBI LODR requires a company to familiarize the independent director's inter-alia with the Company and their roles and responsibilities in the Company. Accordingly, the NRC has adopted a structured program for orientation and training of non-executive directors including independent directors at the time of their joining so as to enable them to understand the Company - its operations, business, industry and environment in which it operates. The directors affirm compliance with the provisions of the Code of Conduct and Risk Management. The Company has a separately defined Familiarization Program for the Directors which also focusses to update the Directors, on a continuing basis, on any significant changes therein so as to be in a position to take well-informed and timely decisions.

The familiarization program shall cover, including but not limited to the following topics:

- Company's culture, values and ethos
- Company's strategy
- Operations
- Product offerings
- Markets
- Organization structure
- Finance
- Human Resources
- Technology
- Quality
- Risk Management
- The ESG commitments and performance of the Company.

8. Performance Evaluation of the Board, its committees and individual directors:

Each year, the NRC formulates the criteria and the process for evaluation of performance of the Board, individual directors, Chairperson and the committees of the Board and recommend the same to the Board.

The board members shall undergo the following and the NRC shall review its implementation and compliance with Applicable laws as well as the criteria and process laid out.

- a) Self-evaluation by each board member based on the criteria set by the NRC, including performance on business metrics and non-financial targets; and
- b) Annual Third-party evaluation by a recognized organization.

The evaluation of the independent directors shall be done by the entire Board of directors which shall include:

- a. performance of the directors; and
- b. fulfilment of the independence criteria including their independence from the management as specified under Applicable Laws.

Directors who are subject to this evaluation shall not participate in their own evaluation.

The independent directors of the Company shall hold at least one meeting in a year, without the presence of non-independent directors and members of the management and all the independent directors shall strive to be present at such meeting. The independent directors in their separate meeting shall, inter alia:

1. Review the performance of non-independent directors and the Board of directors as a whole;
2. Review the performance of the Chairperson of the Company, taking into account the views of executive directors and non-executive directors; and
3. Assess the quality, quantity and timeliness of flow of information between the management of the Company and the Board of directors that is necessary for the Board of directors to effectively and reasonably perform their duties.

Basis the evaluation results, the NRC will make its recommendations to the Board on the appointment / re-appointment / continuation of Directors on the Board.

9. Remuneration criteria

The Committee will recommend the remuneration to be paid to the Directors, KMPs and SMPs, to the Board for their approval. The same shall be subject to the approval of the shareholders of the Company and such other approvals, as may be required.

Guiding principles for the remuneration of Executive Directors, KMPs and SMPs are:

- a) Alignment with Business Strategy and Level of Responsibility & Impact: As employees progress to higher levels in the organization, their performance has a greater and direct impact on strategic initiatives and business results.
- b) Fixed/Base Salary Decisions: The fixed salary shall be competitive and based upon industry practice and benchmarks considering the skill & knowledge, experience and job responsibilities.
- c) Pay-for-Performance: A large portion of each Executive's total compensation is linked to the achievement of Company and individual performance goals. Such compensation is variable in nature and rewards performance and contributions to both short-term and long-term performance of the Company.
 - Performance Bonus Plan: The Performance Bonus Plan rewards contribution to the achievement of the Company's annual financial, strategic and operational goals and individual Key Responsibility Areas (KRAs). The Performance Bonus drives high performance culture to achieve the organization's objectives by differentiating rewards based on performance. The performance will be related to the fulfilment of various targets and attainment of business objectives, both at the Company and individual level.
 - Long Term Incentives: Executive's variable compensation is linked to business and individual performance. The LTI Plan balances executives' performance orientation and decisions to deliver on the short-term business outcomes with the long-term performance of the Company, both on financial and non-financial parameters. The Scheme rewards executives for their sustained contribution over the performance period of 3 years, in successful operation of the Company with wealth creation opportunities, encouraging high-growth performance. To give prime importance to sustainable business delivery, ESG and Carbon footprint are part of additional parameters to measure business performance. To ensure that we operate sustainably in line with our motto of 'zero harm, zero waste and zero discharge', multiplier based on fatalities has also been included as a performance parameter for vesting.

- d) Competitive in Market place: The Company competes for talent globally and in order to attract and retain a highly skilled workforce, it must remain competitive with the pay of other employers who compete with the Company for talent. The company may continue to introduce and implement additional incentive schemes and award programs to recognize the efforts of the executives and keep them motivated for driving growth and performance orientation in the organization.
